A TASTY WAY FOR PATRONS TO HELP YOUR LOCAL BOYS & GIRLS CLUB!
The Old Spaghetti Factory renews their commitment to Boys & Girls Clubs of Redlands and raise money for Club kids

REDLANDS, Calif. — In this economy, it is challenging for everyone to hand over that little bit of extra cash to help others, even if they see that need. OSF International, which owns and operates The Old Spaghetti Factory Restaurants, has seen this need and the desire that community members have to lend a hand to those who really need it.

With a strong desire to support Club kids, OSF is working with Boys & Girls Clubs across the country – for the second year – to raise money for the important after-school programs that the Clubs offer to children.

During the month of July, patrons at Old Spaghetti Factory will have the opportunity to donate to the Boys & Girls Clubs at the end of their meal. A portion of this will go directly to the Boys & Girls Clubs after-school programs. Those patrons who contribute a minimum of $1 will receive a coupon for “Sicilian Garlic Bread” to use on their next visit.

The Riverside location on Mission Inn Avenue and Rancho Cucamonga location on Foothill Boulevard are participating in the month-long fundraising efforts.
